THE NATIONAL RALLY

During the first three days of this week some sixty youngsters met at the Foxcroft School near Middleburg, Virginia. They were divided into twelve teams, four riders and a helper to each team. They represented widely scattered areas, from Canada to Georgia, and they had been chosen to come on the basis of regional competitions between many more such teams. Each represented a member club of the United States Pony Club, Inc., a national organization to teach riding, mounted sports and the care of horses and ponies to those under 21. Officiating at the competition between these teams, known as the National Rally, were the Chairman of the British Pony Club Committee, the parent body of the Pony Club movement which has spread all over the world, and high officials of the Canadian branch.

The events of the rally tested the competitors in three types of riding, dressage, cross country and stadium jumping. They also included tests on horsemanship, on veterinary medicine and on foxhunting. On the basis of periodic stable inspections additional grades were given for the condition of mounts, stalls and tack. In other words the purpose of the Rally was to determine, not just the best team of riders, but the best team of all-round horsemen.

The children making up the teams came from widely varying backgrounds. Some of them owned their own horses and ponies and came from families interested in horse sports for several generations. Others had had their first introduction to riding through joining the local pony club, could not afford to own their own mounts and had no horse background whatsoever. Their instruction had been free, contributed by grown-ups who realized the great educational importance of the program, primarily for the development of character, secondarily for recreation and sport. The money to send them to the National Rally came, not from dues which are advisedly kept low, but from horse shows, gymkhanas and other events given by the local clubs for this purpose. Awards were made, not on an individual, but on a team basis.

This was the third National Rally. In a little over four years the United States Pony Clubs have guided the formation and growth of almost 60 local member clubs which operate from coast to coast. During the next four years that number will certainly be more than doubled.

It takes little imagination to picture the future impact of the Pony Club program. Close association with horses is unsurpassed as a character builder, particularly in the fields of responsibility, self-control, patience, and kindness. For youngsters who someday will be teaching children of their own, schooling horses teaches tact, firmness and discipline. Riding develops physical courage, coordination and balance and cross country riding that geographical sense which has won for it the approval of such military commanders as General Patton and the Duke of Wellington.

Horse sports, like everything else, depends for their future on the younger generation. In an age which has abandoned the horse as a means of transportation and as a source of power, but which nevertheless supports more horses for sport than ever before, the supply of young horsemen has become critical. Whether we are concerned primarily with the education of our children or primarily with racing, showing, foxhunting or polo, we need to get behind and support the Pony Clubs.

BREEDERS' SALES' PLANS

The Breeders' Sales Co., Inc., at a meeting of members and consignors decided to change the dates of the Keeneland Fall Sales to coincide with the autumn meeting at Keeneland. This will mean that the fall auctions will be moved forward about two weeks, to the middle of October.

Also revealed at the meeting were plans to build four new sales barns at Keeneland, near the present Barns 1, 2, 3, and 4. The location of the new structures will necessitate the moving of an access road.

All officers and directors of Breeders' Sales were re-elected at the meeting.

"Know Your Hay"

Dear Sir:

Your recent article entitled "Know Your Hay" is certainly timely and important; undoubtedly there are a number of your readers who are not cognizant of the importance of hay. Many of these people are probably not even aware that there are grades of hay or even different varieties of hay.

The bulk of your readers are not professional horsemen or farmers and you could do them a great service (not to mention their mounts) if some good references were cited on the subject. This

REVIEW OF THE WEEK

Calumet's Princess Turia Scores By A Half Length Over Pucker Up In The Delaware Handicap Raleigh Burroughs

Delaware Park

Recently, "The Saturday Evening Post" ran an article by Red Smith entitled "Horse-Players' Paradise". In case you didn't see the piece and have been looking for such a heaven, it's Delaware Park.

It is a paradise because in Delaware, the bettor has to pay only ten cents to wager a buck, and the track has played a leading part in the emancipation of the female horse.

Miss Helen Stairwalt, a female herself, thought up the idea of featuring races for girl horses. Miss Stairwalt is an associate of Mr. Bryan Field, the gentle-filly. As 19 members of the distaff side were engaged in the race there must have been some crowding (Mr. Palmer Heagerty of the "Telegraph" said that Floral Park had to be taken up) but I didn't see it. In a 19-horse race, I can follow only the ones with red jackets. When Calumet is in the race, that's usually good enough. And when the odds are almost 4 to 1, what else is there to follow?

Princess Turia's Race

Mrs. Ada L. Rice's Pucker Up and Mrs. M. D. Lewis' Happy Princess burst

Up straightening out in the stretch.

Pucker Up continued gamely and hung on right to the wire with both riders driving like ten per cent of $110,875 was at stake.

Princess Turia, very tired, won by half a length. Little Pache closed ground in the stretch to be but a length back of Pucker Up. Rare Treat finished very fast and missed third money by a neck.

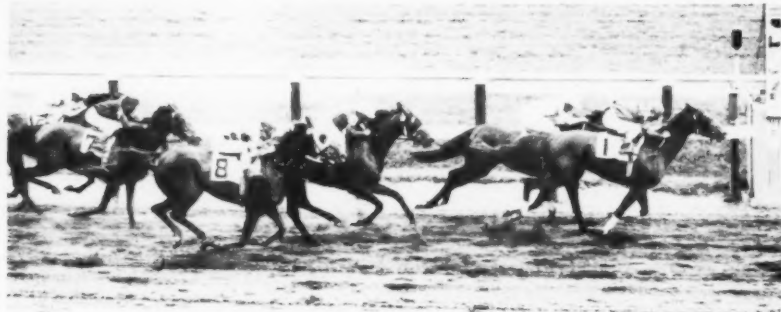

The way the mile-and-a-quarter race developed was beautiful to watch. Coming around the last bend, as Princess Turia was overhauling Pucker Up, the whole herd seemed to surge forward and at the eighth pole it seemed that any of a dozen might win it.

Calumet's Princess would not be denied, though, and the courageous Pucker Up would not quit.

Princess Turia (*Heliopolis-Blue Delight, by Blue Larkspur) won the New Castle a week earlier and thus earned two legs on the Distaff Big Three. Bayou won the other, The Oaks.

As a matter of record, it should be mentioned that Calumet had an entry in the race. Amoret was the other member but did not figure in the payoffs, even though Eddie Arcaro, the author, was aboard. Eddie might have had some trouble on the first turn; he got the Bull Lea mare up to fifth place at the stretch call and that was it. She faded back to eleventh place.

man who directs the destinies of Delaware (Park) and owns the euphonious voice that gives eye-witness accounts of races - over TV and radio - to people who are not able to be eye witnesses.

Horse breeders had been saying, for years, that tracks had not been staging enough races for fillies and mares, exclusively, and Delaware Park was looking for something that would give the track's publicity department a "purpose".

Miss Stairwalt came up with the answer to both problems, and so takes a place beside Clara Barton, Juliette Low and Mrs. Amelia Bloomer.

There were eight beaten favorites in paradise on June 29, but the customers saw a splendid horserace. Handicapper Gil Haus did an amazing bit of calculating to bring the huge field for the Delaware Handicap together. At the finish, the winner was but 7 1/2 lengths in front of the 17th forth from the twin gates most facilely. (Incidentally, Mr. George Palmer's start was a beauty - all in line) Calumet's Princess Turia, under Hartack, got off well and rounded the first turn in third position. Bayou, the only three-year-old in the race was fourth, and Little Pache was fifth.

After about half a mile, Happy Princess decided there must be an easier way to earn her oats. She dropped back, and there was Pucker Up all by herself. With a quarter in .22 3/5 and the half-mile in .46 3/5 it might have been a good place to coast along for a furlong or two, but Bill Shoemaker allowed his mount to click off the three-quarters in 1.11 flat and the mile in 1.37 2/5.

Hartack, on Princess Turia, was just "sittin' and cookin'", as the boys say. He began his move with about three-eighths to go and was lapped on Pucker

Monday, June 24th, 2 mi. over brush. This field of 6 claimers got away well with Fighting Byrne off first and Breakers Ahead driving hard behind him. At the first fence, the latter never rose at all, ploughing right on through tearing out brush and guard rail. The impact, naturally enough, shook loose his rider but the stout old campaigner refused to fall. Khumbaba worked his way quickly to the lead and seemed to be holding it easily when he lost his rider at the 11th; there *External Relations who had never been worse than 3rd took decisive command under the very able handling of Joe Aitcheson. Billing Bear moved up into 2nd position with But 'n Ben a steady 3rd ahead of the faltering Fighting Byrne.

Tuesday, June 25th, 1 3/4 mi. over hurdles. It was Lucky Trine out in front by herself, pursued discreetly by *Darubi-bini, until the long turn for home. Here, *Lickety Split II working his way steadily to the leaders, took over and went on to win by 4. Greek Brother just managed the 4th position. The favored Hellenicus was going well when he bobbed at the 6th.

Wednesday, June 26th, 1 3/4 mi. over hurdles. *Moss Green just coming back to his good English form was overlooked in the betting. Going to the front, after Tall Mound and then Powdersmoke each had a try for it, he simply kept opening his lead. The likely young *Patrick Begorra lost his chance at the first hurdle when he unseated his rider. Highland Light who had hunted all winter and still has to learn to level off more at his fences, was up well all the way and took second money. His stable-mate Tall Mound came on again strongly to be 3rd, ahead of Powdersmoke. (Could the fact that the entry was favorite have something to do with the typographical error in the "Telegraph" crediting Tall Mound with earnings last year of $30,895 instead of his actual modest $3,895?)

Thursday, June 27th, 1 3/4 mi. over hurdles. Except for a brief early lead by Ideal View it was the French-bred *Fairshot all the way. One had the impression that the usually astute John Cotter on Ideal View may have let the winner get too far in front before he made a desperate - and almost successful - attempt to run him down in the stretch. Ancestor ran evenly to be 3rd - hurdles are not really his game. Dromond was there 1/2 length behind for 4th. The only other starter was Policeman Day who dropped out of contention after the first turn.

Rythminhim Wins Indian River

Friday, June 28th, The Indian River Steeplechase. There have been some great horses that have won this race, but never a more gallant one than this year's winner. In the paddock this little horse with his halting walk and lop-sided hip might have been overlooked, but in the field he was magnificent. Bettering Neji's last year's record by 3 2/5 seconds over a course made treacherous by heavy showers, and fighting his way through 13 good horses, Rythminhim went into a clear lead over the last fence and was menaced only by Shipboard, 3 lengths away and driving. It was a triumph of poetic justice, of his own courage, of his trainer's faith and of his young rider who had had 3 falls (one on this horse in the Georgetown) within the week when victory seemed in sight.

Glencannon raced easily to the lead soon after the start and for more than a turn of the course seemed to be galloping away from his field. However, the 2nd time over the water jump right in front of the stands, his hind legs dropped into the water. Slipping, as he struggled to regain his footing, his hind quarters went out from under him. He staggered for several strides as he and his able rider made a remarkable recovery, continuing on in front to the next fence. But too much had been taken out of him - and he was soon through - dropping back finally to 11th place. Morpheus came up then and held sway briefly but gave way to Rythminhim's late drive. Shipboard ran and jumped very well closing strongly but the 22 lbs. difference in weight was too much. *Carafar moved up well but could not withstand the pressure of the first two - finishing 1/2 length to the good of Eastcor - who in turn was a good fourth. This was a very fine effort for his first race having been left at the start in his only other outing.

M-R LINIMENT FOR LAMENESS

*GALLANT MAN'S AMERICAN CONNECTIONS

Frank Talmadge Phelps

If you consider the ease with which *Gallant Man set a new American record of 2:26 3/5 in the 1-1/2-mile Belmont, plus the fact that he almost certainly would have won the Derby had not his jockey mistaken the finish pole, you have to give a slim edge in the scrap for sophomore supremacy at the moment to the British-bred smallish bay colt by Migoli-*Majideh, by *Mahmoud.

That "British-bred" tag is a neat way of weaseling out of the controversy over whether he should be called "English-bred" or "Irish-bred". Since he was conceived and foaled at the Homestall Stud Farm in Sussex, where his sire, Migoli stands and where his dam, *Majideh, was sent back to foal and then to be bred to Tudor Minstrel, American horsemen would consider *Gallant Man an English-bred. But since *Majideh spent the bulk of her pregnancy at the Aga Khan's stud in County Kildare, and since *Gallant Man was reared there until he came to America, European horsemen would regard him as Irish-bred. At any rate he was bred by the Aga Khan and his son, Prince Aly Khan.

In 1955 the Aga Khan, through the British Bloodstock agency, Ltd., and its American affiliate, Fasig-Tipton Co., Inc., sold a group of nine yearlings to Mr. Lowe, who hails from Midland, Texas. At the time the price was rumored to be $300,000, but more recent reports have scaled the figure down to $220,000. Humphrey S. Finney, head of Fasig-Tipton, selected the nine blue-bloods, of which *Gallant Man has been the only one yet to attract any substantial plaudits.

The Belmont winner was named for an unbeaten horse Mr. Lowe saw in an old movie on one of those "late, late" television shows some sleepless night. Having gone to sleep the night before the Derby and dreamed that his rider's error had cost him the classic, then awakened to watch this nightmare turn into reality, the Texan wisely stayed awake all night before the Belmont.

*Gallant Man is only the fourth imported colt to take the Belmont, and the first to do so in almost four decades. His predecessors in the winner's circle after the Belmont Park classic were *Saxon in 1874, *Hourless in 1917 and *Johren in '18.

Despite the Lowe colt's foreign origin, there is much about his pedigree that should be familiar to students of American breeding. His dam, her sire and grandsire, five of her other foals, his paternal grandam and her sire, and his fourth dam have all been imported to the U. S.

As a matter of fact, he is the second successive Belmont victor to have as fourth dam *Golden Harp, who was origiinally brought across the Atlantic Ocean along with her daughter *Melpomene. The latter is the third dam of Needles, last year's Belmont captor who went on to gain the three-year-old crown. However, he also annexed the Derby.

*Gallant Man's third dam, Harpsichord, produced five winners, all of stakes class, including the well known American sires *Hairan and *Royal Minstrel.

Her daughter Qurrat-al-Ain was a 100% producer of seven foals, four of stakes class: Tahir, Bahuddin, Queen of Shiraz and *Majideh.

The Irish Oaks scorer Queen of Shiraz foaled three added-money successes, including *Poona II, hero of the 1955 Santa Anita Handicap and setter of a 1-1/16-mile world record of 1:40 4/5.

*GALLANT MAN, chestnut son of Migoli-*Majideh, by *Mahmoud, going to the post for his winning effort in the Belmont. (Bert and Richard Morgan Photo)

*Majideh also took the Irish Oaks, along with the Irish 1,000 Guineas, Loughbrown and Enniskillen Memorial Handicaps, and 2,613 Pounds at three.

*Gallant Man is the 10th of 11 foals she produced in as many seasons, but only her third colt. The other two, both by Nearco, are the winner Iskandar and the unraced *Sultan Mahmoud, the latter now in this country. Four of *Majideh's seven fillies foaled abroad won, two placed, and the other did not start. Her best racing and producing daughter has been her first foal, the Nearco mare *Masaka, who annexed the English and Irish Oaks, English 1,000 Guineas, Whitsuntide, Queen Mary, July and 1,000 Guineas Trial Stakes; and foaled the Park Hill Stakes victor Bara Bibi. The unraced *Malekeh, by Stardust, produced Beigler Bey, rated third on the 1953 Handicap Optional after triumphs in the Prix d'Aumale and Saint Roman.

*Malekeh and another daughter of *Majideh, *Donya, were included in the group of 41 mares bought by Rex C. Ellsworth from the Aga Khan last year for a reported $3,000,000.

Still another daughter, *Teherany, was included in the Aga Khan's consignment to the 1952 Keeneland Fall Sales, where John W. Galbreath's Darby Dan Farm bought her for $11,500.

*Majideh herself, along with her daughter *Masaka, was sent to the 1954 version of the same vendue shortly after *Gallant Man had been weaned. Although *Masaka slipped her *Tulyar foal after her arrival in this country, she brought a record American mare price of $105,000 from A. B. Hancock, Jr., bidding for John S. Phipps. Joe W. Brown paid $40,000 for *Majideh, in foal to Tudor Minstrel.

The foal she was then carrying, a filly now two years old, has been named Monkeyairs and is presently in training in New York. The mare now has a suckling colt by *Daumier at Mrs. Jack Howard's Rookwood Farm, Lexington, Ky., where the Brown breeding stock is boarded; and has been bred to *Arctic Prince.

*Majideh's sire and grandsire, *Mahmoud and *Blenheim II, have both been leading sires in America. So were *Sir Gallahad III and *Bull Dog, half brothers to *Gallant Man's grandsire, the 1938 English Derby winner Bois Roussel. He got two St. Leger captors, one of them being *Tulyar's sire Tehran.

*Gallant Man's sire, Migoli, is out of *Mahmoud's half sister *Mah Iran, stakes-winning dam of four stakes-class performers, including *Moondust, now standing at Preston Madden's Hamburg Place, Lexington.

*Mah Iran's sire, the English Triple Crown captor *Bahram, who is, like *Mahmoud's sire *Blenheim II, a son of Blandford, spent five years in the U. S. before he was sent to Argentina.

Although Migoli has gotten several high-class runners abroad, *Gallant Man is his sire's first American stakes winner, and the first horse of classic caliber he has sent out anywhere.

THE CHRONICLE

ABOUT STEEPLECHASING

A record $9,100 in purses, increased in several instances by United Hunts financial aid, is helping influence owners to send their best jumpers to professional trainers in preparation for the fall timber season starting Sept. 7 at Fair Hill, Md., and ending Nov. 2 at Middleburg, Va.

The full roster of fall hunt race meetings, climaxed Nov. 9 at Montpelier Station, Va., will bring total purses for the 1957 season to more than $100,000, again over last year.

The Fair Hill, Md., meeting on Sept. 7 and Sept. 14 will see the Trouble Maker Steeplechase at $1,000 raced on the former date, and the $2,500 Cecil County Steeplechase raced on Sept. 14. Pari-mutuel betting at this meeting is expected to reflect the gains already chalked up thus far at Delaware Park, first major track 'chase meeting.

The New Jersey Hunt Cup on Sept. 21, at Far Hills, has been reduced from four to three miles over timber. The Rolling Rock meeting at Ligonier, Pa., that follows features two timber 'chases, the A. M. Byers, 3rd Cup on Oct. 2 and the Western Pennsylvania Hunt Cup on Oct. 5. The Rose Tree Fox Hunting Club meet at Media, Pa., on Oct. 19 will see the timber toppers compete in the Rose Tree Hunter Challenge Cup.

The Monmouth County Hunt Racing Association meeting at Red Bank, N. J., Oct. 26, features the Monmouth County Hunt Cup; and at Middleburg, Va., on Nov. 2 is the last timber stake of '57, The Chronicle Cup.

The Montpelier Hunt Races at Montpelier Station, Va., will bring to a close the hunt racing season on Nov. 9.

Figures just released by the United Hunts Racing Association covering the first two weeks of racing at Delaware Park show that public interest continues to grow in the jumping sport.

A total of $641,817 has been bet so far this year on the Delaware 'chasers. This is an increase of almost $3,000 over a comparative period in 1956.

The percentage of winning favorites also shows a steady gain as three out of five public choices won during the second week of the meeting. This, combined with two in the opening week, gives an over-all record of fifty per cent of winning favorites in the first ten races.

A glance at the flat track record shows that only twenty-nine per cent of the public choices won during the same period.

EVAN SHIPMAN

Evan Biddle Shipman, one of America's greatest turf writers, died on June 24th at the age of 53 following a long illness at the New York Hospital. He is survived by his sisters, Mrs. Raymond Barbin of Halfway, Va., and Mrs. Montgomery Angell of New York City. He will be buried in the family plot at Cornish, New Hampshire.

Mr. Shipman was the son of Louis Evan Shipman, one of the best known playwrights, essayists and editors of his day, and of Ellen Biddle Shipman, acknowledged to be the nation's leading landscape architect. After attending Groton, where one of his classmates was Ambassador John Hay Whitney, he studied at the University of Louvain and at the Sorbonne in Paris, where he continued to live from 1922 to 1930 as European correspondent for the American Horse Breeder. Here he became a lifelong friend of the novelist Ernest Hemingway. Mr. Shipman also wrote a novel, a volume of poems and numerous essays. He served with the Loyalists in the Spanish Civil War during 1937-38, where he was severely wounded, in the company with Mr. Hemingway, and during World War II was sergeant major of the 16th Armored Division's 16th Regiment. He is also the author of a privately printed biography of John D. Hertz. For many years, he wrote the lead article for the annual racing review of The American Racing Manual. He was also a leading columnist for The Morning Telegraph and The Daily Racing Form. In 1953 he was commissioned by The Jockey Club to write the 5th Volume of its series "Racing in America", the previous volumes of which had been written by John Hervey and Walter S. Vosburgh. Unfortunately, his failing health prevented him from completing the task.

Mr. Shipman was as much an authority on harness racing as on Thoroughbreds. He was also a most cultivated man who brought to his writings authority, erudition and charm. A good friend of steeplechasing, one of his pleasures in recent years was to watch the success of his nephew, Evan Shipman Jackson, as a steeplechase rider. He was sympathetic and generous in his attitude toward everyone connected with racing, no matter what their station. His place in American turf journalism was unique. Obviously he can never be replaced.

NEW YORK STEEPLECHASING

As a part of the $3,000,000 face lift given to Belmont Park this spring, the Greater New York Association moved some 200,000 cubic yards of dirt from the infield to make it a little less difficult for spectators to see the horses as they run down the back stretch. You will recall that they used to disappear about 5 1/2 furlongs out and not show up again until they were halfway around the turn.

I'll tell you a little secret. The GNYA needed that dirt to raise the level of the old railway yard across Hempstead Avenue so they could make a parking lot out of it. In any case, though, it meant digging up all the grass in that part of the infield from which the dirt was removed. The new grass hasn't had time to get its feet dug in yet so there won't be any turf races during the spring meeting. That, of course, includes flats, hurdles, steeplechases, and anything else which is normally run on grass. By fall, GNYA thinks everything will probably be just dandy and racing on the sod can be resumed.

In the meantime, there will be jumping races at Saratoga, one a day with six stakes scattered through the four weeks of the meeting. The stakes are The Promise (for 3-year-olds at a mile and a half with $10,000 added), The Beverwyck (4-year-olds and up at 2 miles and also with $15,000 added), The Lovely Night (3-year-olds and up at 2 miles with $10,000 added), The Saratoga (4-year-olds and up at 2 1/2 miles with $20,000 added), and The National Maiden Hurdles for non winners at the time of closing (March 15) for 3-year-olds and up at 1 3/4 miles with $7,500 added.

CHARLES TOWN FILM PATROL

Among several improvements which greeted patrons of Charles Town on the opening day (June 29th) of its 43-day meeting were 3 film patrol towers, 2 at the turns and 1 on the grandstand, from which complete films of each race will be made.

ARC DE TRIOMPHE SHIPPING

EXPENSES

The French Jockey Club recently announced that, in observance of the 100th anniversary of the founding of the Longchamp racecourse, the purse for the Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe has been increased to $162,000 in added money and the race thrown open to the world. The club will allow U. S. owners $1,500 for air shipment and South American owners, $2,000 in order to encourage nominations (which close August 6th) for the race on October 6th.

CALIFORNIA 48-HOUR RULE

Chairman Dewight Murphy of the California Horse Racing Board recently stated that the board intends to pass a rule prohibiting the giving or application of medicine of any description to horses 48 hours prior to a race for which they are entered as a measure to remove any possible chance of stimulation.

KELLY HIGHEST WHEELING BIDDER

John B. Kelly, president of the Atlantic City Racing Association, recently made the high bid of $1,500,000 for the Wheeling Downs race track when it was offered at auction.

STRASSBURGER COLT IMPORTED

Ralph Beaver Strassburger, the American who breeds and races in France, has sold his three-year-old colt Georgian (Le Tyrol-Saipan) to the Buddah Stable for racing in this country.

HATTON ON STEEPLECHASING

Columnist Charles Hatton writing from Delaware Park recently said: Steeplechasing is in a bad way again. The $7,500 Spring Maiden, which is a glimpse into the sport's future, fashioned as it is for non-winners over brush at the time of closing, drew only four entrants in three interests.

Steeplechasing at major tracks now is limited to this course, Saratoga and Belmont Park. This observer happens to be among those who enjoy a good steeplechase. We do not yield to anyone in respect for such idols of the 'chase as Elkridge, Golden Meadow and Jolly Roger. But when patrons of this colorful phase of the sport do not support it properly, it becomes insupportable to the public. It is not a matter of purse distribution. Only a few years ago, we analyzed the statistics and found that, pro-rated, there was approximately $10,000 for every jumper who started. Further, it is understood that the GNYA plans this fall to compensate for the prize money lost by an abeyance of spring steeplechasing at Belmont Park. We quite appreciate that it is expensive "making" a hedge horse, often requiring a year of schooling. The painful fact remains - there are not enough steeplechase horses.

Frank Adams, who is centaur Dooley Adams' father, has a suggestion about the Spring Maiden that Jack Cooper might consider. He thinks perhaps it should have a supplementary closing, if it is "for maidens over brush as of March 15" in future years. Gil Haus observes, "Up to this year, the Spring Maidens stood up reasonably well. Perhaps the explanation for this one lies in the fact that there was no steeplechasing at other major tracks before this meet, as in the past." If that is the answer, the situation should right itself in 1958, when Belmont 'chasing is resumed. And in later years there is the new Aqueduct. As Red Smith says, "So it costs Delaware money to have steeplechasing. So they already got money."

"Jack Cooper, executive secretary of the NSHA, says: 'Possibly, because of the contrast with excellent steeplechases which had preceded it, notably the Tom Roby and the Georgetown, during the first week, some people placed undue emphasis on the smallness of the Spring Maiden field ... When unusual weather dries and hardens the turf, as has been the case during the past six weeks, something has to give, and brush racing more than any other type of racing is affected most. Despite the efforts of Delaware Park to keep its infield in good condition, artificial watering can do just so much, and most private steeplechase training tracks have no facilities at all.

"In flat racing small fields and uninteresting races crop up from time to time. In other sports, much heralded events sometimes prove less than a contest. These occurrences are unfortunate, but after some grumbling the fans, promoters, the participants carry on like good sportsmen, and hope for the better luck next time With reasonable weather in the weeks and months ahead jumping races will continue to provide the thrills that have made it part of our racing scene."

CALUMET TWO-YEAR-OLDS

Last year, Calumet's Jimmy Jones told Maryland sports writer, Joe B. Hickey, Jr., to look out for General Duke, Iron Liege and Simon Kenton in 1957. When recently asked by Mr. Hickey for his pick for 1958 he mentioned Tim Tam (Tom Fool-Two Lea); Jeriel (*Khaled-Jennie Lee); and Federal Eagle (Citation-Ralda). They should be worth watching.

JOCKEYS' GUILD PAYMENTS

During 1956, the Jockeys' Guild, Inc. paid to needy Guild members and their families, the sum of $64,484.05.

THE CHRONICLE

BELMONT IMPROVEMENTS

Visitors to Belmont during its 58 day meeting starting May 29 will see a bit more than $3,000,000 worth of work initiated by the GNYA which has been already completed. This is about half of the program now planned for Belmont, but it is the most interesting yet installed by a New York track.

The work, this year, has been aimed at the problem of transportation. New entrances and exits, designed in clover-leaf fashion, have been completed and others started so as to solve the traffic problem and move the thousands of cars home in the most efficient manner possible.

Inside the stands, there are six escalators - four in the grandstand area and two in the club house. These, installed at a cost of more than $300,000, will move about a hundred people a minute from the ground floor to the mezzanine levels.

STAKES WINNER FROM 1956

HARDIN CONSIGNMENT

Another stakes-winner has been added to the list of two-year-olds which were sold from Virginia consignments at the Saratoga Yearling Sales last year. Hasty Doll, by Roman out of Legendra by Challenger II, was among the yearlings sold by Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Hardin's Newstead Farm, and brought $13,700. Her most recent triumph was in the Miss Chicago Stakes at Washington Park on May 22, and was her fifth time out. Prior to Wednesday's win, she had won one maiden race, been third in another and third in the Debutante Stakes at Churchill Downs.

Hasty Doll's sire, Roman, will be represented in the Virginia Thoroughbred Association tour for yearling buyers (June 22-23) by three colts and a filly, from the consignments of Blue Ridge Farm, Kentmere Farm and Nydrie Stud. Her dam, Legendra, will be represented by a bay filly by Rosemont (The Porter-Garden Rose by Colin).

VIRGINIA

NEVER SAY DIE YEARLINGS

In 1954 two Virginia breeders were among the buyers of broodmares at the Newmarket December Sales, Gordon Grayson of Blue Ridge Farm near Upper-ville and Mrs. John O'Fallon III whose Byrnelly Farm is at The Plains. Mr. Grayson had a service to the late Robert Sterling. Clark's Never Say Die so he was looking for a mare in England. His selection was the winner Crayke, a daughter of Fair Trial out of the Bellacose matron, Congo. She was then in foal to Owen Tudor and after dropping her foal in 1955, she was bred to Never Say Die. The result of this cover was a bay colt and this individual is included in Blue Ridge Farm's Saratoga consignment this year of six yearlings.

Mrs. O'Fallon's top bid from the sales was for the winner Early Riser. This daughter of The Phoenix out of At Once, she by Umidwar, was in foal to the great sire, Nearco. After her foaling date in 1955, she was bred to Never Say Die but unlike the Blue Ridge Farm mare, she was brought to this country. The bay colt whom she dropped at Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Hardin's Newstead Farm is the only yearling whom this breeder is sending to Saratoga and he will be handled by James L. Wiley.

These two yearlings are the only ones who will be sold at either Keeneland or at Saratoga by Never Say Die.

HALF BROTHER TO ROMANITA

The victory of Romanita in the Cleopatra Handicap at Arlington Park calls attention to her dam, Mablen, who was owned by Kentmere and under lease to Matt Winn Williamson at the time Romanita was foaled. A half-brother to this outstanding filly will be sold by Kentmere Farm at Saratoga this year, this being a chestnut colt by *Beau Gem.

KENTUCKY

MARCHMONT YEARLINGS

Charlton Clay's Marchmont Farm, Paris, will sell at the Keeneland Summer Sales two Tom Fool colts; sons of *Ambiorix and Jet Pilot; and fillies by Greek Ship, Pet Bully and *Princequillo.

The Jet Pilot colt and Greek Ship filly are out of full sisters to Lea Lark, record-breaking stakes-placed dam of Lea Lane and Leallah; and one of the sons of Tom Fool is from a half sister to Lea Lark. The daughter of Pet Bully is a half sister to Fond Embrace. F. T. P.

GALBREATH BUYS CIRCLE M

John W. Galbreath of Darby Dan Farms has purchased from Mrs. Edward S. Moore the 242-acre Circle M Farm on the Old Frankfort Pike, Lexington, Ky., formerly owned by Col. E. R. Bradley. Mrs. Moore retains the use of the residence and will continue to board her breeding stock on the farm.

NIARCHOS BUYS CONFETTI

Stavros Niarchos, owner of Segula the dam of Nashua, who paid $65,000 to the Clifford Mooers' estate for his second share in *Nasrullah, will breed the latter to the mare Confetti which he has purchased from the estate of Robert Sterling Clark. She is due to foal to Native Dancer in the near future.

ROGERS BUYS IDLE HOUR

Julian Rogers, a member of the syndicate that purchased Idle Hour Farm from Allen T. Simmons last August, has bought the 186-acre tract from the other members of the syndicate. Dan B. Midkiff will remain as manager of the farm which is situated on the Old Frankfort Pike, Lexington, Ky.

BATTLE MORN TO TIMBERLAWN

Edwin K. Thomas, owner of Timberlawn Farm, Paris, Ky., has purchased a half interest in Harry F. Guggenheim's Battle Morn. The winner of the 1950 Grand Union Hotel Stakes, four other races and $42,175 in three active seasons has been moved from Mr. and Mrs. Melville Church II's North Cliff Farm, Rixeyville, Va., to Timberlawn, where the son of *Blenheim II out of the top juvenile filly Good Morning will stand the 1957 season at a fee of $500 live foal, payable when the mare foals, is sold or leaves the State, with mares subject to Mr. Thomas' approval. Battle Morn sired four winners in his first crop, two-year-olds last season. F. T. P.

MUTH VAN SERVICE

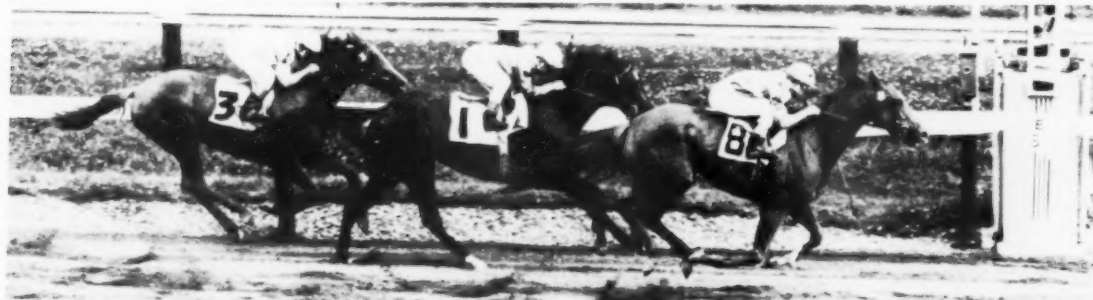

CLEARING ASSOCIATION

The Muth Van Service, Lexington, Ky., has organized a Clearing Association among a group of van lines throughout the country, in order to eliminate partial-load or empty-van trips. The Association will maintain lists of horses to be shipped from one point to another, so that partial loads can be filled out with other horses from the same general area and return loads can be arranged to fill empty vans. The plan is expected to save money for shippers as well as for the van companies. F. T. P.

FOREST RETREAT YEARLINGS

Dr. Eslie Asbury's Forest Retreat Farm, Carlisle, has consigned to the Keeneland Summer Sales colts by *Alibhai, Count Fleet, *Daumier, Eight Thirty, Hill Prince, *Nasrullah and Polynesian; and an Olympia filly.

The *Daumier and Eight Thirty colts both have stakes-winning dams, Petit Bleu and Egretta, respectively. F. T. P.

GALLORETTE FAMILY

To persons interested in the distaff line which produced Gallorette, the world's leading money winning race mare when she retired to the broodmare ranks and still second on the list, as well as being at the head of the poll for outstanding race mares which is taken annually by Delaware Park, James L. Wiley's Locochee Farm has two choices.

A potential for the broodmare ranks is a chestnut filly by More Sun-Maryeleanor, by By Jimminy. This filly's great granddam is Gallette who produced Gallorette. For the prospective sire ranks, the Locochee Farm consignment includes a chestnut colt by *Rico Monte-Emme, by *Challenger II. Emme is a daughter of Gallette and is a full sister to Gallorette. The consignment is completed with two colts by Sun Again and *Endeavour II and two fillies by More Sun and *Djeddah.

SOLAR SYSTEM TO FAULTLESS

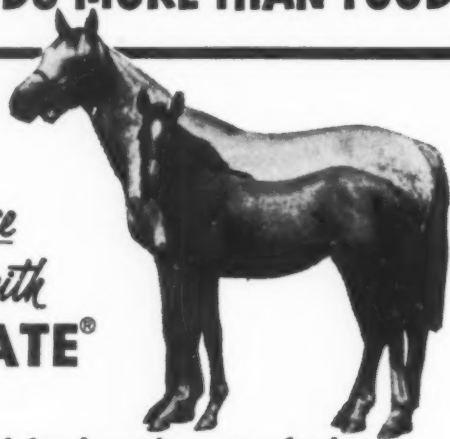

Solar System, belonging to Mrs. L. L. Voight, Jr. of Winterton Farm, Flint Hill, Va., winner of the $25,000 Barbara Frietchie at Bowie, has been bred to the Preakness winner Faultless, who stands at the Dhu Varren Farm of E. H. Ellis at Far Hills, N. J.

ANOTHER FOR *MIDAS

Milton Ritzenberg of North Hill Farm, Berryville, Va., reports that *Midas has a full book for this season. He recently had another stakes winner in England, Lord Hothfield's Midwest, which won the Eaton Handicap.

SHE NEEDS MORE THAN FOOD!

*Balance
her diet with*
VIONATE®

recommended for brood mares, foals, weanlings, yearlings, horses in training

AS EVERY GOOD HORSEMAN KNOWS, a brood mare's diet must be planned to help her withstand the strain of gestation and lactation. She needs a balanced diet, heavily fortified with vitamins and minerals. Even the finest feed or pasturage should not be expected to provide all the known essential vitamins and minerals in proper ratio she needs to maintain her own strength and produce a strong, well-formed foal.

MANY VETERINARIANS RECOMMEND VIONATE. Vionate is an economical source of 11 essential vitamins and 9 vital minerals scientifically formulated for horses. Vionate provides the calcium, phosphorus and vitamin D your brood mare needs to protect her own bone structure and for sound skeletal development in the foal. Weanlings and yearlings need Vionate to help them grow fast with strong legs, supple tendons, healthy, disease resistant bodies.

VIONATE IDEAL FOR HORSES OF ALL AGES. A small amount of Vionate added to feed once each day provides inexpensive insurance against vitamin and mineral deficiencies. Use Vionate for horses in training to help maintain energy reserves needed for quick starts and staying power.

VIONATE contains: Vitamins A, D₂, B₁, B₂, B₆, B₁₂ activity concentrate, Folic acid, Niacin, Pantothenic acid, Vitamin E, Choline; Minerals: Salt, Calcium, Phosphorus, Iodine, Iron, Cobalt, Copper, Magnesium, Manganese.

You can get Vionate in 10-lb. drums and larger economy sizes from your favorite drugstore or through your veterinarian. For information, write to: E. R. SQUIBB & SONS, Veterinary Products Department, 745 Fifth Ave., New York 22, N.Y.

VIONATE is a registered Squibb trademark.

CORRELATION TO STUD IN FLORIDA

Correlation, winner of the 1954 Florida Derby, will return to the State in which he gained one of his major triumphs when he entered stud in Ocala in 1958. The six-year-old bay son of Free America-*Braydore has been syndicated by Grant A. Dorland, who will move to his new Ocala farm September 1. Members of the syndicate are Carl Rose, Bonnie Heath, Doug Edwards, Elmer Heubeck, Jr., and Dorland, all of Ocala, Robert S. Lytle, Los Angeles, present owner of the horse, Phil Godfrey, New York, and Dr. William O. Reed, Miami Springs. Mr. Lytle will keep several mares in Florida to be bred to Correlation.

Correlation won the Florida Derby and Wood Memorial at three, had previously won the C. S. Howard Stakes at two. He also finished first in the Preakness Prep, was second in The Preakness, Garden State Futurity, and East View Stakes. His winnings at 2, 3 and 4 totaled $329,879. A horse who could sprint or stay in the best of company, it is expected that Correlation will prove to be a popular stallion in the Sunshine State.

His sire, Free America, by *Blenheim II-Columbiana, an accomplished race horse under the famous Calumet banner, has made a good start in stud in California. He has 43 winners from 64 foals in his first four crops, Free America's current yearling crop is the first to reflect the accomplishments of his best son, Correlation. *Braydore also has three foals placed in stakes - Diamond Miss, Roi Harrar and Interpretation, the latter second in the Santa Anita Derby. In addition, Diamond Miss is the dam of Murray Canyon, winner of the 1957 Bay Meadows Futurity.

Correlation will be moved to Ocala as soon as fertility tests have been satisfactorily completed. He will stand for $500 to guarantee a live foal at Bonnie Heath's Farm. Correlation will be managed by Mr. Dorland, presently at his farm on the Harp & Innis Pike, Lexington, Ky.

BLUE SPARKLER'S KIN

Since Amory Haskell's great mare Blue Sparkler has been retired to stud, the hopes of Woodland Farm are pinned on the mare's 3-year-old full brother, High Sparkle (Knave High-Blue Tiara), and a yearling full brother as yet unnamed. The latter is from the last crop of Knave High.

MAYERS VISIT MEADOWVIEW

Mr. and Mrs. Louis B. Mayer of California recently visited Mrs. F. Wallis Armstrong Jr.'s Meadowview Farms, Moorestown, N. J. to see their two mares which are booked this spring to Your Host.

HUNTING

The Litchfield County Hound Show

William Montague Backer

Racing men say that luck runs with them as an entry.....always in twos and threes. With foxhounds, it seems to run as a pack, and that is the way it went at this year's seventh annual Litchfield County Hound Show, held May 18 under the auspices of the Masters of Foxhounds Association, the American Foxhound Club, and The National Beagle Club.

Despite inoculations, mild distemper pervaded the kennels of the Litchfield County Hounds in early May, making it necessary to uproot the Show from its traditional "Home-with-a-View", on the front lawn of Mr. and Mrs. Sherman P. Haight, Sr.'s residence on Chestnut Hill. It found new and comfortable quarters on the Show grounds of the Litchfield Horse Show Association, courtesy of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Mortimer. Accommodations for visiting packs of beagles and foxhounds were built from scratch as kennels were not available at the new location.

Beagle Division entries represented five packs.....The Buckram, The Old Chatham Hunt Beagles, The Sandanona, The Sir-Sister Beagles, and The Waldingfield. The eighteen classes for 13-inch and 15-inch beagles from packs registered with the National Beagle Club or hounds that had placed in American Kennel Club Field Trials, were well filled and provided Judge John J. Mansfield of Taunton, Mass., with keen competition from which to choose the eventual winners and champions.

Judging started in both rings at 9:00 A.M. and ended at 4:30 P.M. with the awarding of the American Foxhound Club Challenge Cup to the Champion American Foxhound of the Show, Millbrook Jolly '55, and the Beagle Championship Trophy to Waldingfield Vixen.

Foxhound entries were somewhat lighter than in previous years due to a number of unusual circumstances. The Litchfield County Hounds were on the veterinarian's list and could not compete. For the first time, nearby Fairfield entered no hounds, and Essex, always a joy to watch, was planning to compete in Virginia this year instead. Despite these facts the Championship, which Millbrook eventually won, was heavily contested by The Middlebury, The Golden's Bridge, The Rombout, and The Old Chatham hounds.

The distinguished judges of the American Foxhound Division were Mr. Mason Houghland, M. F. H., and Mr. William Almy, Jr., Ex-M. F. H.

During the afternoon, Mr. Kent Leavitt, M. F., and Miss Adele Leavitt, M.B. of Millbrook, N. Y., gave an exhibition of their Poona Bassetts. The exhibition of this wonderful pack of bassetts made a great hit and contributed greatly to the enjoyment of everyone attending the Litchfield County Hound Show.

In the Division for hounds belonging to members of the Connecticut State Foxhunters' Association, Mr. Benjamin F. Funk officiated as Judge. Knowledgeable foxhunters who watched this Division exclaimed that they had seen some of the finest examples of Walker hounds in America being judged this day. The Champion in this Division was Royalwin, owned by Mr. Frank Wians.

Also, there was a recess-time cocktail party for foxhound exhibitors and their guests given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sherman P. Haight, Sr., while the beagle exhibitors enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. F. E. Haight, Ex-M. F. H., which featured both 13-inch and 15-inch cocktails.

After the Show, festivities gravitated to Slingshot Farm, "the House-away-from Home", of Joint M. F. H. J. Scott Abrams, Jr.

From the standpoint of the Chief Steward, who is also the scribe of this article, this year's Show was the best organized in its seven-year history, despite the last-minute move to the temporary location, so kindly made available by Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Mortimer.

Congratulations are in order, but would probably be wasted on Mrs. Sherman P. Haight, Jr., Chairman of the Show, and Mrs. J. Scott Abrams, Jr., who will probably be too busy conditioning horses and running summer Hunt functions to read all the praise they deserve when this article is published.

GREEK BIT

Denison B. Hull writes: "While I was in Greece I came across an antique horse's bit in the museum in Olympia. I could not find the date but I believe it was about 200 B. C. It was a plain snaffle without a joint but with a metal tube covering the whole mouthpiece so that the tube would roll over the horse's tongue. Olympia, incidentally, is not far from Xenophon's farm, although no one knows exactly where the farm was."

CONNEMARA CHAMPION

THE EDUCATION OF OORID BELLE

Stanislaus Lynch

Seven years ago, eight hardy Connemara men, led by Mr. Martin Griffin, drove a batch of Connemara ponies down the mountains and on to the crossroads at Maam Cross. The ponies were as wild as gazelles, their flowing tails almost trailing the heather; and manes and tails were matted with briars and gorse from the mountains.

The men sorted out a little grey owned by Mr. John Walsh, Oorid, Recess, Connemara. Although nearly two years old, she looked little more than a foal. As soon as the stormy little mite was separated from her wild-eyed companions, the men surrounded her and drove her headlong into a "suirac", where she sank to her belly. It seemed a crazy thing to do, but it was the Connemara man's centuries-old method of dealing with bombshells from the hills.

Immediately the men pounced on her and in a matter of seconds had her haltered securely. Her wild life on the hills had ended. She fought like a wildcat, but the Connemara men, with years of experience in handling wild ponies, were firm but gentle, and let her tire herself out in the safest place in Connemara for the purpose - a "suirac". Here, she could plunge and wrangle, fall and tumble, roll and stagger, but she couldn't hurt herself - the soft boggy swamp would inflict no scars or injuries.

When she ceased fighting the men hauled the trembling creature to the road where Mr. Jim Cassidy's trailer horse-box was waiting. She wouldn't go in, but the experienced handlers practically lifted her into it. For half an hour she drenched the floor of the box with the sweat of fear, but before the car moved off she nibbled a few handfuls of grass that her captors offered.

She was a disheveled, stupified little wisp when she staggered dazedly out of the box that night in Dublin. Weeks of care and attention soon revived her spirit, and she again became a Connemara bombshell when the first saddle was put on her back.

By 1951 she was carrying her owner's little daughter, Maureen Cassidy, hunting with the South County Dublin Harriers. Her owner is one of the honorary whippers-in to this Hunt. By 1952 she was sampling show-jumping at local gymkhanas and graifne. By 1953, 1955 and 1956 she had collected 63 prizewinning rosettes. (In 1954 she had no suitable rider of the age required by the show-jumping regulations.)

In 1955 she had the remarkable record of winning ten first prizes in a row, during which she jumped almost 200 fences without knocking any of them! In 1955 and 1956 the Show Jumping Association of Ireland awarded her the PIXIE CUP, presented by Mrs. Nicholas O'Dwyer, wife of the Master of the South County Dublin Harriers, for the highest number of wins and placings achieved during a year by a pony not exceeding 13.2 hands high, ridden by a child under 14 years.

Last year, 1956, she crowned a brilliant career by winning at the Indoor Show at Burton Hall, Stillorgan, County Dublin, the Show Jumping Association of Ireland Pony Championship, which made her "The Champion Pony of The Year".

Oorid Belle is also a brilliant hunter and can tackle successfully, big Irish cross-country fences that make many a good horse and rider bite the shamrock!

Now she has been sold to Mrs. Francis P. Sears, of Boston, Massachusetts, who, until last year, was commissioner of the North Shore Branch of the Pony Club of America. She bought the nine-year-old pony for her 12-year-old granddaughter, Miss Diana Gardiner, who has already won rosettes at local shows in U. S. A.

Before purchase she had to undergo a thorough veterinary examination, and apart from physical soundness and proven jumping ability, she had to pass a good manners test, to prove she was a real "child's pony" and not an unmanageable run-away. She was ridden at a walk by her new 12-year-old rider, while galloping horses overtook and passed her. She was made to stand still when they returned at the gallop. She behaved perfectly throughout.

One would hardly connect this docile creature with the wildcat it had once taken eight stalwart Connaughtmen to capture in a Connemara "suirac"!

Pony Club's Eastern Penna. Regional Rally

Every time the Pony Club has a rally, National, Regional, or inter-branch, the sum total of our experience is enormously added to. The most valuable single contribution made to that total by the Eastern Pennsylvania Regional Rally, held by courtesy of Mrs. John B. Hannum III, M. F. H. Mr. Stewart's Cheshire Foxhounds, at Unionville, Pa., on June 17 and 18, was the addition of two A Pony Club members to the Executive Committee. It is not an exaggeration to say that the success of the Rally - and it was an enormous success - was due chiefly to the efforts of Diane McDonald and Ronnie Houghton, both from Radnor, the second and third A's ever made in this country. As A's are supposed to judge and teach, it was a valuable experience for them, too. Diane was special assistant to the Regional Supervisor, and had a close look at the overall executive picture, as well as scoring with Deirdre Hanna, and judging the ten points for a smooth ride in the Cross Country phase, C-1 division. Ronnie was Stable Management judge with John Cully, and worked on the Stadium Jumping course with Mr. and Mrs. W. Burling Cocks, Diane, and Deirdre Hanna.

This rally was particularly blessed with distinguished judges. Mrs. George Jacobsen came down from Montreal to judge the Dressage, Mrs. Edgar Scott was the over-all judge of the Cross Country, Dr. Charles Hollister, head of the New Bolton Center school of veterinary medicine, wrote and gave the veterinary test, Mrs. Nelson Slater, M. F. H. of Essex, came down to give a particularly well-organised and basic fox-hunting test, John Cully, certainly one of the best horsemen and horsemasters in this country, judged stable management most thoroughly and constructively, and Burly Cocks, one of the great steeplechase trainers, constructed and judged the Stadium Jumping course. When Col. Howard C. Fair presented the trophies at the end of the second day, and the children realised that it was beaming so benevolently at them, they all felt that everything had been done to give them the very best adult teaching, judging, and encouragement.

As always, it was the greatest pleasure to welcome the beginning C group - the C-1s, and to see how many of last year's C-1s are now C-3s. The total scores follow, but they can't really tell the tale

Also the following officers were elected at this meeting: District Commissioner - Mary Anne Harrison; Secretary-Treasurer - Allen S. Bridges; Chief Instructor - Marian Humphries.

The second meeting was held at the home of Mr. & Mrs. Pickering at 1558 San Madele Ave., Fresno, California on May 31st, 1957.

Three committee's were voted on and persons were elected to the following: Bulletin Committee - Chairman, Penny Miles; John Hawkins, Jim Pickford, Debbie Davis, Joan Shields, Jim-Sarnoff, Janet Paehlig, Suzanne Pashayan, Beverly Simonson, Marjorie Shields. Miscellaneous Committee - no chairman, Henry Burton, Doug Hawkins, John Hawkins, Jim Pickford, Norma Snyder, Joan Shields, Marjorie Shields. Program Committee - Chairman Robin Davis, Jill Siegfried, Henry Burton, Doug Hawkins, Norma Snyder, Victoria Pickering, Debbie Davis, Joan Shields, Bob Morrish.

The third meeting of the Fresno Pony Club was called on June 7th at the home of Mr. & Mrs. Charles Pashayan at 748 Holland Ave, Fresno, California. There was a pot luck and a swimming party.

There was a practice tack cleaning contest in preparation to the one to be held Ram Tap on the 12th of June, 1957.

There were 22 paid memberships presented at this meeting. Also there was earned at the show at Ran Tap on March 31, 1957 $14.00 and at this time was presented to the Secretary-Treasurer to be deposited.

Ottawa Valley

The Ottawa Valley branch of the Pony Club is smaller than it was a year ago, but with a greater proportion of horse and pony owners. Amongst seventy members, there are thirty-two owning their own mounts, an enviable percentage. Districts have also been cut down and merged and, at present, there are four - Aylmer; Britannia-Merivale; Montreal-Rockcliffe and Old Chelsea. Mrs. Bodil Waever, District Commissioner, and Miss Helen Chamberlin, Chief Instructor (surely the most indefatigable workers to be found anywhere) do a large percentage of the work, though Mrs. H. C. Linkletter is doing a sterling job with the Old Chelsea youngsters, in place of Lynne Mayburry, at present touring the States.

Mrs. Hamilton Gault, Visiting Commissioner from Ste. Hilaire, Que., came a couple of weeks ago to judge senior and junior Pony Club equitation classes at the Ottawa Valley Light Horse Show, and award "B" and "C" certificates.

Barbara McKibbin won the Senior class and proudly bore home the exceedingly handsome challenge trophy presented by Alex and George Perley-Robertson. Sarah Jennings, Joanna Garland and Anne Fyfe, all of whom have improved immeasurably in the past year, placed after Barbara in that order. Another well-deserved win was that of Terence Millar in Junior Equitation, who was equally proud of his handsome trophy presented by Colonel Cuthbert Scott, Joint M.F.H. of the Ottawa Valley Hunt. Those of us who know the youngsters, sent up special cheers when Ann McKibbin placed second, Rosemary Hanna third and Wendy Blackburn and Ronnie Davidson tied for fourth place. It was a fitting reward for keen enthusiasm and hard work.

Barbara McKibbin, Sarah Jennings and Joan McKibbin are our three new "B"

Irish Team For European Junior Jumping Championship

Five horses and ponies (one reserve) and four riders have been selected to represent Ireland in the European Junior Jumping Championships to be held at White City, London, from July 22 to 27. It will be the first time for Ireland to be represented, and the first time for the Championships to be held in Britain. They are usually held in the country whose team won them the previous year. Britain won them last year, so if Ireland should be successful this year the Championships could be held in Dublin next year.

Teams from ten nations are competing, and all riders are under 18 years of age. The four riders and five horses are: The Hon. Diana Connolly-Carew on Tubber-nagat; Master Gerald FitzGerald on Patsy; Master Peter FitzPatrick on McD; and rider, Peter FitzPatrick, who is a few days over the 16 years age-limit and therefore could not ride the pony in competitions for the Fergusson Tractor Points Cup.

Paleface has also kindly been lent by Miss Marcia Bradford, an American girl, who with her twin sister, Alicia, has been at college in Ireland for the past four or five years. Their father is Chairman of the American Express in New York.

The team was selected by a representative committee: Mr. Robert Verner (Member of the Executive Committee, Show Jumping Association of Ireland, Northern Region), Lt.-Col. J. J. Lewis (Chairman of the Executive Committee, S. J. A. I., Southern Region), and Mr. William McLernon (Chairman of the Cork Branch, S. J. A. I.).

The children will be chaperoned by at least two relatives, and will have an adult as Chef d'Equipe, probably Lt.-Col. J. J. Lewis or Lt.-Col. J. Hume Dudgeon.

SHOW STORIES

Ox Ridge

The Ox Ridge committee was well rewarded for increasing its show to three days and making it "A" in all divisions. The quality and quantity showed quite an improvement especially in the green and "strip" classes. Competition in every section was extremely good and any color ribbon was hard to come by.

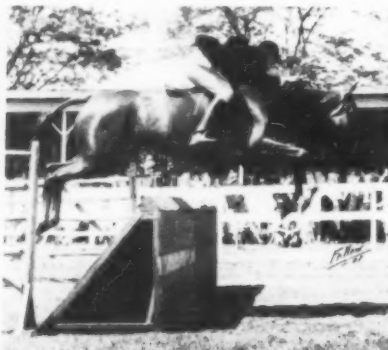

OWNER-RIDERS IN THE RIBBONS AT THE LAKE FOREST (III.) HORSE SHOW - (Left): Carolyn Lucenti on GLORY SHADOW, winner of the $1,000 Working Hunter Stake. (Center): Linda Swanson and AVON GIRL won the Ladies Conformation

Bronze Wing, ridden by Bob Burke would make it strictly no contest, as he won three classes in a row. Then he dropped further back in the ribbons and remained unplaced altogether (after a bad fence) in the amateur. This enabled the amateur winner, Mr. and Mrs. Henry D. Paxson's Chappaqua ridden by Mrs. Paxson and Allan King, to gain a point tie with Bronze Wing. Since Chappaqua had previously won the under saddle, the result of the hack off was a fairly forgone conclusion.

The green working horses were outstanding with some thirty of them listed for the stake. A Virginia horse, John S. Pettibone's Gallery Lad, ridden by Robert Kerns performed so well that he gained the championship by double the number of points of the reserve horse, Saxon Woods Farm's Burgrave.

Officially, there is no U. S. Equestrian Team in competition. However, horses lent to the team previously were shown in their owners names and ridden by last year's team members. Hugh Wiley did

THE CHRONICLE

Trip in the reserve spot in the working hunter division, scoring 13 points, and the same stables' young horse, Sir Trouble, in the reserve place in the green conformation hunter division with seven points.

Green hunter champion was Mr. and Mrs. Grover W. Stephens' Garden of Eden, of Warrenton, Va., with Mrs. Stephens in the saddle throughout the show. Garden of Eden was green champion at Devon, and Sir Trouble was young hunter champion.

The hunter divisions of the Lancaster show were the best the show has ever had, attracting as they did the cream of the crop from Devon. Twenty to 25 were entered in each hunter class.

The jumper division didn't draw as many top horses as usual, but those who did take part gave a good show, in spite of a heavy rain on the second day, which nearly bogged everybody down, including the jumpers.

Two horses, Red Knight, owned by Mr.

There seems to be no in between for Peggy Augustus' owner-ridden Waiting Home. After winning the model, he remained unplaced until Sunday when he won three classes for a total of 17 1/2 points and the conformation title. Of a more consistent nature were the performances of Chin-quapin Farm's Silverminer, who was ridden by Jack Payne and EllieWood Keith, to a variety of ribbons and the reserve award.

The over 90 degree heat did not seem to bother the horses as much as the humans. It certainly didn't show any effects on the two top green "strip" horses, who accounted for all the blue ribbons in the division except for the model. Kathleen McKinney's lovely Glen House ridden by Bob Burke went one better in the blue ribbon department than Lakelawn Farms' Sir Trouble, ridden by Ed Daniels.

There were some lovely performances by the working hunters, as there should be with so many top horses in competition. For a time it seemed that Fairview Farms' more than his share as he rode Mrs. W. J. Barney's Master William to the championship and his own Nautical to the reserve. Official or not the Equestrian team dominated the jumper division as they accounted for five out of the seven classes.

The green jumper division produced the most consistent horse of the show in Fox Valley Farm's Regency Rake, ridden by Dave Kelley. He placed in every class, winning three of them. A tie for reserve resulted between Rocky Hill Stables' Rocky Hill ridden by Jack Amon and Sugar Hill Farm's Mr. Sandman, ridden by Betty Haight. As a result of a jump-off the award went to the former.

Tanbark.

Lancaster

Ridden by Miss Bosley to reserve championship with 17 points in the conformation hunter division was Jeraldum, Mrs. Myron E. Merry, Gates Mills, Ohio, owner. Ed Daniels put Lakelawn Farms' Little and Mrs. Gardiner Hallman, Burtonsville, Md., with Hallman up, and Imperatore Motor Co.'s Royal Flight, of Canonsburg, piloted by Dave Kelley, came into the stake with 12 points apiece, while Mr. and Mrs. John H. Lorenz' Real McCoy, of Baltimore, had 11. Real McCoy forged ahead to win the stake, 16 points and thus the championship, as Royal Flight placed only second, and Red Knight was not in the points score. Royal Flight had 14 points for the reserve slot.

Shannondale, of Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon M. Smith's Green Court Stables, Ithaca, N. Y., swept the hunter divisions of the Lancaster Horse Show to win the title of Grand Hunter Champion, with 20 1/2 points. Ridden by Mrs. Robert Burke, the stunning, tall (17.3) chestnut also won the conformation hunter championship, and as high point scorer among the four hunter divisions, won the Grand award and challenge trophy. Six-year-old Shannondale appeared to be in top form as he negotiated the courses under the skillful hand of petite Sue Burke, who makes it all look so easy.

Fairview Farms' Bronze Wing, who was grand champion at Lancaster last year, captured the working hunter championship, with 16 points, ridden by Bob Burke. Bronze Wing was Devon champion the week before.

Miss Elizabeth Bosley, of Unionville, Pa., rode a champion and a reserve champion at Lancaster, while Ed Daniels of Lakelawn Farms, Skaneateles, N. Y., piloted two horses to reserve spots. Miss Bosley's handling placed Lucaya, owned by Walter Wickes Jr., of Northbrook, Pa., in the championship position for green working hunters, scoring ten points. Memorial Day, owned by Fox Valley Farms, Glen Mills, Pa., and ridden by Mrs. Harry R. Gill, of Blue Bell, Pa., was close with nine points for reserve in the division.

Children's classes at Lancaster are definitely on the upswing, with 26 hunter ponies entered this year, double last year's number. Many were top name ponies in the east.

Michael Savastio, of Hershey, Pa., captured the equitation award for riders under 14 years of age, and also won a blue with his pony, Captain Midnight. Mimi Cummin, nine, of Villanova, Pa., won two blue ribbons with Coupon, a 14 hand pony.

Three-year-old Dean Snyder, Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. Dean Snyder of Annville, Pa., continued a winning streak in this area in the lead-line class, riding Millarden Farms' Candy Cane. The youngest rider in this class was Robert Alexander, Jr., seventeen months, of Lancaster, who placed fourth on Diamond Lil.

Margaret L. Smith

Sewickley Hunt

A cloud burst the night before show time made the ring and outside course slippery. However, as Friday was for Breeding, Green and Junior classes, the outside course was used only twice and had a good chance to dry out. The ring remained soggy until well into Saturday classes.

The classes this year were very well filled and all Championships under tight competition. A new Challenge Trophy was added to the Corinthian Hunter class by the family of Mrs. William Stevenson, this beautiful sterling tray was won by Mr. William Stirling riding his Extravagance. Another name was added to the Stonedal Cup, Miss Sheila Lenehan, hers is the sixteenth to be engraved in this trophy. Miss Linda Jenkins repeated two of her 1956 wins when she captured the Richard Mather Marshall Jr. and John Ashby Marshall Memorial Challenge Trophy for Owner-rider, and the Dan M. Rugg Perpetual Memorial Trophy for the top Junior exhibitor.

The high-light of the Challenge Trophy wins was when the Sewickley Hunt Team scored a third consecutive win to retire the Mr. & Mrs. Henry J. Stringer, Jr. Trophy. The team consisting of Daniel P. Lenehan on Steady Friar, Daneen Lenehan on Red Chester and Mr. William Hanley on Tillery's Spree had a close to perfect round, their spacing was so even it looked measured, their style of jumping perfect and their appointments faultless.

Richmond Hill

Richmond Hill, Ontario, has the oldest horse show in Ontario. On May 25, they had good weather and show president Gordon Atkinson must have been well satisfied with results, although entries were not as heavy as at some shows in past years. The Spencer horses from London, Ontario, came down to take their share of the prizes. Both the Sifton Stables were in attendance - that of Col. Clifford and son Michael and that of Col. Victor Sifton who shows his horses under the name of the Free Press Weekly. Mrs. C. N. Smith's Brooklands Stable did well with the Scottish import Pepper Knowes. Galt

Well over 300 horses at the Galt Horse Show June 20 and 21 and fine weather, if hot, made this the most successful show yet for the hard working members of the Galt Civic Service Club. Ninety classes covering all divisions, even to breeding classes, packed into two days required almost continuous use of three rings set out in the natural amphitheatre of Dickson Park. Additional box stall accommodation was provided this year, resulting in the largest entry since the Galt show revival following the war.

E. H. Coad's Blue Beau, performing consistently and brilliantly under Tom Gayford accounted for the jumper championship over A B C Farms' Black Velvet with Jerry Bayman in the saddle. Gaylands stables old reliable Rocket came out with the conformation championship over Don Hargrave's home-bred grey Dan Cashin. A tie for the green hunter championship required a hack off between Mrs. Barbara Spencer's chestnut After Image and Cuthbert Ironsides new black mare, The Wasp. The Wasp got it. Broadview

Bridlespur

Using a quote from the recent Sports Illustrated story "The Elegant Bridlespur Hunt Horse Show", don't you believe it! No one could be less elegant up to their ears in mud and slop. For the first time in 30 years the Bridlespur Show was characterized by revolting weather. Although there were several scratches the competition was still keen and the points were well spread around making Sunday's classes the deciding factors in the Championship awards.

The highspot of the show for spectators as well as those who rode was The Grand Prix Jumping Event. Even though some of the fences had to be rearranged due to the shortage of water wings the course with some 12 fences was a rugged test of a horse and rider's ability. August Busch's Miss Budweiser showing for the first time this season under the artful guidance of Bob Egan tied with Fred Langhauser's High and Mighty. On the jump off Miss Budweiser turned in a spectacular round jumping in championship form and won it with a clean round. This gave the championship to the mare with High and Mighty reserve.

Closest competition which could have gone anyway was in the Green Conformation division. Philip Smith's newly acquired Blue Coat (purchased from Mr. and Mrs. Robert Egan) being shown for the first time by his new owner was pushed by stablemate Ebony owned by Mr. and Mrs. John Dube and shown by Mr. and Mrs. Egan and Wally Staley's free going Girady. Blue Coat's good wins in the Ladies (Mrs. Egan up) and his owner's win in the Stake made the points close. Ebony's consistent knocking at the door in every class—4 seconds and a third—gave him the nod by one point for the Championship over the flashy four-year-old Blue Coat.

Working hunters were working like mad in and out of the ring over courses which tested their ability as well as their manners. Anne Werner's four stride and a bounce win in the Qualified class was probably the most spectacular round of the two days, including the last fence which caused the parting of the ways but enough beyond the finish line to warrant the blue. Dr. Louis Aitken's 21-year-old Over Again and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Egan's newly acquired Timberline battled it out for the tricolors, with Walter G. Staley's Huntingfield pushing everybody. Timberline's win in the Ladies and a good second in the Corinthian and the lightweight helped to give him enough points, even with Over Again's blues in the Middle and Heavy-weight and Corinthian, to win the Bridlespur Challenge Trophy for the Champion Working Hunter and reserve to Dr. Aitken.

The Conformation classes, lighter this year than usual presumably due to the rain, caused little confusion. Walter Staley's good performing Royal Mile skimmed over good courses to win the tricolor with the George W. Clarkson III's Our D'or taking reserve honors.

Aurora

There was a time when exhibitors drove their driver to the Aurora Horse Show and led their other entries. Then the park was ample to hold all. Now with everyone coming by car and truck and van the Park seems to have shrunk and the circus part of the Fair has been cut down to a few side shows, hot dog stands and one ferris wheel and merry go round. The horsemen, of course, are not sorry about this but it is the natural mecca for the young fry and does pull in the crowd.

The hunter jumper ring was enlarged this year and a good sized second ring for pony and harness events was also made possible by relegating the horse vans to parking out on the streets surrounding the park. It really is a very pleasant setting bordered by majestic trees which afforded welcome shade for waiting entries and it was a very good show. Hunters and jumpers flocked in for the afternoon classes but the morning breeding classes were light, although the children's classes were excellent in the morning.

The jumpers were in particularly good form. E. H. Coad's Blue Beau won the Aurora Horse Show Shield; Moffett Dunlap won the knockdown & out with Delmon and in the interesting five foot class, Bob Ballard's horses finished first, second and third. Broadview

Boca Raton In Hawaii

Cdr. G. W. Kittredge, USN

"For the first time in twenty-five years," observed Dr. Clarence Frank, prominent Honolulu physician and well known big game hunter, after the game Sunday, "outdoor polo has been played in Kapiolani Park."

And it was good polo. Not excellent polo, mainly because the field was not in the best of shape and the transition from the indoor game to the outdoor category left something to be desired in horse-flesh, but good polo nevertheless. Two games were played. These were limited to four chukkers per game in order not to make the total time of play too long for the spectators who numbered about 2,000 people.

The second game of the day was by far the best. It was between the Maui team and visiting Boca Raton. The conversion to outdoor polo produced a change in Maui's lineup compared to last year although the mainstay of the team was still Manduke Baldwin riding in the No. 3 position. At back, doing the same dependable job he did last year, was Gordon Von Tempsky. Up front, Henry Rice played at No. 1 and Peter Baldwin, fresh from Cornell's indoor polo team, held down the No. 2 spot. As usual the Maui team was mounted on superb horses, most of them Thoroughbreds.

For Boca Raton, which totaled 17 goals, Bert Beveridge played at No. 1, Bob Beveridge at No. 2, nine-goal George Oliver at No. 3 and B. Gutierrez at back. In fairness to the visitors, it must be said that the Boca Raton side was considerably under mounted.

The game started with Maui scoring the first goal. Henry Rice, who was playing goal position and well up in front at No. 1, took a drive by Manduke Baldwin and knocked it through the uprights. Manduke came through alone again in the first chukker to make it 2-0 in favor of Maui.

In the second period, George Oliver, hitting with the ability he has long been famous for, converted a penalty shot for Boca Raton's only score of the day. An additional goal by Maui in the third chukker and another in the fourth wrapped the game up for the Maui Yellojackets.

Twelve enthusiasts took to the saddle in this second game of the season, but it was the Red third-chukker line-up that turned the trick for their team. Dr. Richard T. Gilyard of Middlebury was at forward in that chukker, with Cynnie Michaels and Nape Smith, both of New Haven, rounding up the lineup that scored one goal apiece for a 4-1 lead.

Club president Charley Kellogg tallied all three Blue goals, one of them coming on a whopping nearside backhand that flipped over the heads of everyone on both teams, and bounced between the markers.

Memorial Day found Southbury Polo Association in full tilt, with Dan Wallace's New Haven Reds outdoing the Jeremy Blues by a 4-3 score.

The club's first annual "Polo Ball" held the previous evening - and on into the morning - might have been blamed for the barely noticeable slowing down of reflexes in one or two of the later periods, but all-in-all the game moved rapidly. As a matter of fact, the pace at which games are carried on this season, as opposed to that of the first few seasons, is becoming a cause of alarm among "those who know". Everyone who plays now, including the women, thoroughly enjoys galloping headlong down the hayfield-turned-polo-field and plowing vigorously into an opponent to ride him off, and action has picked up considerably.

a 2-0 series with their 4-2 victory over the Jeremy Blues on Oak Tree Field Sunday, June 9.

The Reds took the lead in the first chukker, when both Nape Smith of New Haven and Will Emerson of Fairfield tallied, Charley Kellogg's powerful penalty shot that slammed through the New Haven defenders for a conversion prevented his Blues from being shut out in that chukker.

Emerson, riding at back and wearing a red shirt not too unlike the Cornell uniform he wore as a varsity rider back in 1950 and '51, pushed the New Haven score ahead to 3-1 in the third chukker. Wallace countered Win Duke's lone Blue score of the final chukker with one of his own to keep the two-goal margin.

goes not only for hay but for any instance where the editorial or article involves a technical field.

In the case of hay, the Department of Agriculture puts out a number of free bulletins which deal with all aspects of the subject. I would particularly recommend, "Yearbook Separate No. 2011 - Principles of Making Hay" and "Bulletin No. 1770 - High Grade Timothy & Clover Hay Production".

If only those people who buy feed for horses would read your technical recommendations on this subject, it would do a great deal to generally improve the understanding of both the buying public and the suppliers.

Very truly yours,

Canadian Wins Hurdle Race With Stallion

Dear Sir:

A few days after seeing Sundew win the Grand National and College Master, ridden by Morgan of the Australian Olympic Equestrian Team, win the Foxhunters' Chase, I was at the Ascot Sales where the latter animal had been purchased about two years before. I was told that Morgan had bought this horse for about three hundred pounds and after hunting him to qualify, had finished second to The Callant in a hunter chase at the Cheltenham meeting before his very popular win at Liverpool.

I was looking for a chaser or hurdler that I could ride in a race or two and perhaps take home to Canada with me. Nothing in the sale seemed to fill the bill but Col. Vallance, a successful trainer at Malmesbury, suggested speaking to the leading National Hunt trainer, Capt. Ryan Price, who has a large stable of horses and was leading the list of winning trainers at the time.

Vallance introduced me to Price and when I told him what I wanted, he suggested an 11-year-old stallion called Rockspring who had been running well in hurdle races, but who was getting cunning and wouldn't try hard enough to win.

Three or four days later I went down to Price's stable at Fendon, on the south coast. Rockspring was a good looking animal about 15.2, sound as a bell, who had been racing with considerable success since a two-year-old.

After riding him at exercise for about a week a race came up in which he had been entered, at Plumpton, a short distance from the training stables. This was on the day before Easter.

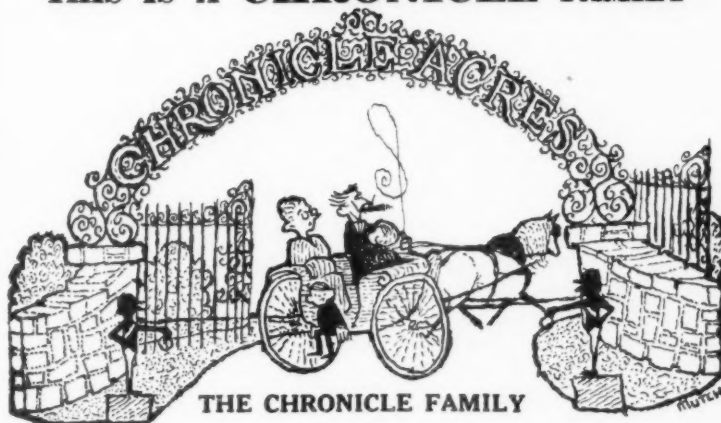

When he was giving me a leg up Capt. Price warned me that the old horse wouldn't respond to the whip. With that we went off to the post and lined up with the rest of the six starters. We got off well and after being in the lead for about half a mile we began to drop back until, passing the stand the first time, I could hear the loud speaker giving our position as last. Just then I was feeling pretty low and we stayed in the same discouraging spot until starting into the last turn. At this point I let go with hands and voice, as hard as I could, and gradually we started to improve. We landed over the last hurdle in third place with only about a hundred yards to go. Working harder than ever we got into second place, then with a last desperate effort we got up in the last few feet to win by a head.

I can't say too much in praise of Capt. Price; after watching him at work, I could see why he is the leading trainer. He is a hard worker and very conscientious. He had over fifty horses in the stable and they were practically all clean-legged.

Sincerely,
John MacNamara

Racing Review

Princess Turia has won 4 of her 6 1957 races and has been third twice. The New Castle and Delaware were her only stakes wins.

With the $110,875 from the Delaware, her season's total adds up to $147,125. She won 8 of 19 last year and $95,900.

Jimmy Jones trains her. Of course, she is Calumet (Mrs. Gene Markey) bred.

Arlington Park

While Princess Turia was mopping up at Delaware Park, Calumet Farm's Derby-winning Iron Liege was earning a fast buck on the Illinois front.

Top-weighted in the seven-furlong Laurance Armour Memorial Stakes at 126 pounds, the son of Bull Lea-Iron Maiden, by War Admiral, closed fast to catch Greek Game on the wire and win by a head. Manteau (a son of Citation) was third and Mister Jive was fourth. Barbizon, Iron Liege's stablemate, finished last in the eight-horse field.

It was the seventh victory of the year for Iron Liege. The colt has the Jersey Stakes to his credit, as well as the Derby and Laurance Armour. The Arlington race was worth $12,825. His '57 earnings now stand at $234,000. Dave Erb was up for the Armour. Iron Liege is another Calumet-bred.

Fred W. Hooper's Alhambra ran the first race of his career on June 18 and won it so impressively that he was made the odds-on choice at 9 to 10 when he came out for the Primer Stakes eight days later. He justified the public's confidence but he didn't allow the chalk players to sit back and relax - he won by a whisker, after a duel that lasted the full length of the stretch.

Leather Button, winner of the Joliet Stakes, was the one that made the race interesting. He followed Alhambra for half a mile, then went to him and it was head-and-head the rest of the way. Relim S. W. was third and Little Reaper fourth.

The Primer was worth $10,775, and that gives Alhambra $12,090 for winning 2 out of 2.

The colt is by Olympia, out of the Epithet mare, Robins Charm. Mr. Hooper bred him.

C. R. Parke trains for Hooper.

J. Heckmann has ridden Alhambra in both his races.

Belmont Park

Investors in the bourse at Belmont measured Mrs. Adele L. Rand's Clem as the most likely dividend-producer in the Withers field (June 24) and they were right in their diagnosis of the field for the one-mile gallop.

A one-dollar dividend was returned promptly on every two-dollar certificate.

Conn McCreary held Clem comfortably off the pace set by Irate and then by Cohoes and nailed Cohoes in the stretch to race off to a 1 1/4-length win. Cohoes was second by five lengths over Tenacious which held third by half a length over Irate.

Clem by *Shannon II-Impulsive, by Supremus, won the Shevlin on June 12. The $19,100 he took out of the Withers gives him a season's total of $59,150. He has 3 wins, 2 seconds and 3 thirds in 8 tries. Last year he earned $33,700.

Mr. Louis B. Mayer bred Clem. W. W. Stephens trains him.

Jester, owned by Mr. George D. Widener, took the colt's division of the National Stallion Stakes on June 26. Held at 1 to 2 and ridden by Edward G. Arcaro, Jester took the five-furlong dash by two lengths. In second place was Jimmer, which was 5 1/2 in front of Clandestine. Royal Willow was another length and a half back in fourth place.

Jester was making his third start. He finished fifth in a race for maidens on Decoration Day and then registered in a non-winners-of-any race on June 8.

So he has 2 for 3.

His Stallion purse amounted to $20,825. His total stands at $23,425.

Erdenheim Farms Co. (that's Mr. Widener, too) bred the son of Tom Fool, from Golden Apple, by Eight Thirty. He is the first stakes winner for Tom Fool. Bert Mulholland trains him.

Short Takes of Late Stakes

Brae Burn Farms' War Piper took the $23,200 Roseben Handicap at Belmont on June 29. The War Admiral seven-year-old paid $14.00 in the mutuels. St. Amour II was second and Nahodah, third.

At Suffolk Downs, on June 26, Mrs. C.

Conn McCreary held Clem comfortably off the pace set by Irate and then by Cohoes and nailed Cohoes in the stretch to race off to a 1 1/4-length win. Cohoes was second by five lengths over Tenacious which held third by half a length over Irate.

Clem by *Shannon II-Impulsive, by Supremus, won the Shevlin on June 12. The $19,100 he took out of the Withers gives him a season's total of $59,150. He has 3 wins, 2 seconds and 3 thirds in 8 tries. Last year he earned $33,700.

Mr. Louis B. Mayer bred Clem. W. W. Stephens trains him.

Jester, owned by Mr. George D. Widener, took the colt's division of the National Stallion Stakes on June 26. Held at 1 to 2 and ridden by Edward G. Arcaro, Jester took the five-furlong dash by two lengths. In second place was Jimmer, which was 5 1/2 in front of Clandestine. Royal Willow was another length and a half back in fourth place.

Jester was making his third start. He finished fifth in a race for maidens on Decoration Day and then registered in a non-winners-of-any test on June 8. So he has 2 for 3.

His Stallion purse amounted to $20,825. His total stands at $23,425.

Erdenheim Farms Co. (that's Mr. Widener, too) bred the son of Tom Fool, from Golden Apple, by Eight Thirty. He is the first stakes winner for Tom Fool. Bert Mulholland trains him.

Short Takes of Late Stakes

Brae Burn Farms' War Piper took the $23,200 Roseben Handicap at Belmont on June 29. The War Admiral seven-year-old paid $14.00 in the mutuels. St. Amour II was second and Nahodah, third.

Chronicle Cover

The painting on our cover was done for the Triangle Publications, publishers of the Morning Telegraph, Daily Racing Form and American Racing Manual. It was presented to owner Rex Ellsworth, as an award for Swaps being elected Horse of the Year for 1956. The setting for the painting is Hollywood Park, California, on the day that Swaps broke the world record for a mile and sixteenth, in the Inglewood Handicap, June 23, 1956. Owner-breeder Rex Ellsworth and Trainer M. A. Tenney agreed that this was Swaps' greatest race. The horses in the background are Mister Gus, Bobby Brocato, and Honey's Alibi. Mister Gus finished 2nd, Bobby Brocato 3rd and Honey's Alibi 5th.

Swaps, a 5-year-old son of *Khaled-Iron Reward by *Beau Pere entered stud this year after winning a total of $848,900 during his career. He started 25 times, scored 19 victories, was 2nd twice and 3rd twice. His pedigree is one that will catch the eye of any breeder interested in a classic winner. M.R.

DUBLIN HORSE SHOW PARTY

After J. Stuart Robertson of Boca Raton, Florida, bought Ireland's beautiful Lakes of Killarney - no less - from the Estate of the Earl of Kenmare, he discovered that one of the perquisites of his new purchase was permanent reservations for some 30 hotel rooms in Dublin during Horse Show Week, which are normally about as scarce as hen's teeth. So, for the benefit of American show enthusiasts, he organized the Dublin Horse Show Society of America and the Dublin Horseshow Aircruise Houseparty scheduled to depart from Idlewild Airport on August 5th.

Captain and Mrs. James Kiernan of Stuart, Florida, Mrs. Charlton Eden of Palm Beach and "Lady" Eleanor Bumgardner of Washington were among the first to make plans to join the party. Others who have reservations are Mr. William C. Stevenson and family, Middleburg, Virginia; Mrs. Howard Linn, Miss Weston Linn, Mr. Seymour Blair and Mrs. Frank E. Wilhelm (nee Cudahy) from Lake Forest, Illinois; Mr. Frank Cryan of New York; and Mrs. Rieta L. Westervelt, Hobe Sound, Florida.

Plans for the group, in addition to the Horse Show and the daily auction sales of Thoroughbred yearlings, include a reception to be given by Viscount and Lady Powerscourt at their estate in County Wicklow; three Hunt Balls; mornings at renowned stud farms - among them the home of the winner of the Belmont Stakes, "Gallant Man"; an evening with the Abbey Players; and an unforgettable day in Killarney.

For Sale JEB 27925

Jeb is a light chestnut, 16.1 hands, 10 years old, and a gelding. He is perfectly sound and has no blemishes.

Jeb has been shown quite successfully in open jumper classes but due to his mild temperament, perfect manners, and way of going, he is truly hunting material. However, due to commitments in pursuit of an education, Jeb must be sold.

PAUL LITTLES TO TOUR RUSSIA

W. Paul Little and his wife are leaving June 28 on a seven-week Russian tour organized by a Lexington, Ky., sports announcer. Mr. Little, who owns Palmeadow Stock Farm in partnership with his brother, Kellar M. Little, plans to take samples of burley tobacco with him, as well as pictures and pedigrees of some 65 Standardbred mares in foal to prominent trotting stallions. Through the United States Department of Agriculture he has secured appointments with top Russian officials to discuss barter deals. F. T. P.

EBELHARDT HURT SERIOUSLY BY LIGHTNING

Paul Ebelhardt, Manager of Calumet Farm, Lexington, Ky., was injured seriously on the afternoon of June 22 when lightning hit an electric golf cart in which he was riding at the Lexington Country Club. One of his companions, Alfred B. McEwen, Professor of Law at the University of Kentucky, was killed instantly; and another companion, Frank J. Quinn, Manager of a Lexington insurance-adjusting firm, suffered shock and a burn on his right arm.

The three were golfing with Carl Hudgins, Vice-President of a Lexington flour mill, when the storm arose. Mr. Hudgins and his caddy walked to a nearby shelter house; but the other three golfers started for the clubhouse in the cart, with Prof. McEwen driving. The bolt knocked Prof. McEwen and Mr. Quinn from the vehicle, which continued down the fairway for some distance before it rolled to a stop with the unconscious Mr. Ebelhardt still in it.

Mr. Quinn walked to the caddy house to report the accident. Two doctors who had been playing golf and had taken refuge from the storm in the clubhouse administered artificial respiration to Mr. Ebelhardt until the arrival of a Lexington Fire Department Life-Saving Squad, which continued the artificial respiration on the way to the hospital. Early the next day Mr. Ebelhardt was reported still unconscious, but breathing normally. F. T. P.

COACHING CLUB LUNCHEON

On June 22nd at Belmont Park, more than 50 members and guests of the Coaching Club of America were entertained at a luncheon in the trustee's room prior to the running of the Coaching Club American Oaks. Vice-president Whitney Stone presided. Members attending were William Ewing, Anderson Fowler, Bayard Tuckerman Jr., F. Ambrose Clark, Oliver D. Filley, George D. Widener, C. Mahlon Kline, Devereaux Milburn, Jr., Harry Lamontagne, John A. Morris, Joseph Walker Jr., Reginald B. Rives, F. H. Prince Jr., and F. S. Von Stade.

Guests of the Club included Ashley T. Cole, Thomas Armstrong, Christopher T. Chenery, Robert J. Kleberg Jr., Harry F. Guggenheim, B. A. Tompkins, John W. Hanes, John W. Galbreath, Edmond P. Hanrahan, Ogden Phipps, Cyrus S. Jullien, John O. Needles, Edward L. Kilroe and William C. Langley.

Guests of the members included Andrew Willis, Oleg T. Dubassoff, Arthur White, Frederick Winthrop, James Gowen, Herbert S. Tuckerman, J. R. Deering, Gregg Strauss, Percy Kirkland, C. J. Murray, Henry Lewis 3rd, Spencer J. Drayton, Harry S. Middendorf, Fletcher Harper, Gordon Coogan, William Wilbur, Charles S. Bird, Jr., and George P. Denny.

JUNIOR WINNER

For the first time in the history of the Liesse Hunt Horse Show, the working hunter championship was won by a junior. Successfully bringing off this feat was Anne Clark of Ste. Agathe, Quebec, on her 14.3, eight-year-old dun mare, Palican. D. A.

J. H. WHITNEY ELECTED TO BRITISH JOCKEY CLUB

John Hay Whitney, U. S. Ambassador to the Court of St. James, has been elected an honorary member of The British Jockey Club. Mr. Whitney is co-owner with his sister, Mrs. Charles Shipman Payson, of the Greentree Stable in this country and has raced both here and in England for more than 30 years. He was elected to the American Jockey Club in 1928.

TO DRESSAGE TESTS IN AACHEN

Fritz Stecken, Chief Instructor of the American Equestrian Educational Institute at Croton-on-Hudson, New York, left for Europe on June 14 with his dressage pupil, Jessica Newberry, her parents and the two horses Plutony and Archimedes. Miss Newberry will compete in M (medium) and S (heavy, or very advanced) dressage tests in Aachen, Germany, in July. E. F.

JOHN PAWLE FUND

Americans who have bought harriers and beagles in England will be interested to hear that Captain John Pawle, for 37 years secretary and treasurer of the British Beagles and Harriers Association, is retiring this year and that a fund is being raised to present him with a suitable testimonial at the Peterborough Hound Show. Anyone interested in contributing may send a check (one on their own bank will do nicely) to the John Pawle Fund, Barclays Bank, High St., Sevenoaks, Kent, England.

AMATEUR AND PROFESSIONAL

Commenting on the recent alterations in the F. E. I. Rules defining amateurs and professionals, Col. C. E. G. Hope, Editor of "The Light Horse", (England) says: "It seems to me that the time has come when the distinction between amateur and professional should be abolished, and that all should compete on equal terms."

WATCH ME

There was a certain horse many watched at the Warrenton Horse Show (1914) in the class for Jumpers, 51 entries, a brown gelding, 15.3, by Watchman. His name was "Watch Me" and the small cup that he won was converted into a cream pitcher and has been used daily ever since.

Watch Me hunted with the Warrenton and the Orange County, Virginia. He never refused a jump. It is a pleasure to learn his name is perpetuated in Park Ridge, Illinois. Lester Karow

WINSTON'S SUCCESSOR?

Who will succeed Winston? This has been a burning question ever since the 16.1 chestnut which carried King George VI and Queen Elizabeth II on state occasions for many years, died last autumn. Apparently the choice has fallen on a horse called Imp, also a chestnut of about the same size, but with the addition of four white stockings. Imp joined the London 1955 and has recently been schooled under side saddle by Mrs. D. Archer-Houblon.

MRS. ADA L. SALLEE

Mrs. J. P. Sallee of Lexington, Ky., who runs her son's van business while he is officiating at Keeneland and other race tracks, was formerly Miss Ada Levi of Berryville, Va., a cousin of G. Kenneth Levi, whose Blue Ridge Press prints The Chronicle.

GEOLY SHOW STRING

During the past winter, five of the show horses belonging to Thomas Geoly, including Matador who was shown by the U. S. Equestrian Team last summer abroad with success and the almost equally famous Pale Face, have been boarded at Gustav F. Veirman's farm on Phalanx Road near Lincroft. Mr. Veirman recently moved to this location from Manhasset, Long Island where he was forced to leave because of the building of the Expressway. He has already built a 12-stall stable and plans to add another 12 stalls in the near future. A half-mile training track for Thoroughbreds with a hunter course in the infield is also being developed on the property.

Mr. Geoly is moving his horses to the Tagg farm at Holmdel where his son Guy will prepare them for the summer show circuit.

Arlington Park Hurdle Stakes Carter W. Brown

The curtain was officially rung down on the 1957 Midwest Hunt Racing Association's season with the seventh running of The Arlington Park Hurdle Stakes on June 21. Of the original thirteen eligibles only seven faced starter Austin Brown to go the about two miles over hurdles, the balance of those comprising the original eligible list suffering from a variety of misfortunes. Particularly notable in their absence were Mrs. W. D. Hall's *Another Hyacinth, winner of three featured *chases on the circuit and Guilford Dudley's *Hurst Park, winner of The Midwest Hurdles at Camden and a recent race at Delaware Park. The former is being side-lined the remainder of the year due to leg trouble and the latter is racing on the major courses in the east.

This is not to detract from the second consecutive victory of Harry M. Rhett, Jr.'s Port Call in the Arlington. Jumping in his confirmed careless manner but ably handled by jockey Pat Murphy the Mate jumper made hash of his field to win from start to finish by some twenty-five lengths eased up in the time of 5:7 2/5. Jamaica Boy, temporarily converted from his usual division of timber racing, made a short-lived effort to go with the winner but could not handle the situation and faded out of prominence to be sixth at the finish.

John's Hour, on the other hand, though he was away from the tape first, was eased off the pace during the middle running and came from fourth at the next to last hurdle to be second at the wire. In so doing, he picked up Expedient and Farmer's Joy, both of whom had been pressing the pace behind Port Call. John's Hour overhauled the pair in the turn and was second best by ten lengths over Farmer's Joy at the finish with Expedient another two lengths back for fourth.

Arlington Park Hurdle Stakes, $5,000 added, abt. 2 mi. over hurdles, 4 & up. Winner: chg., 6, by Mate-Pretty Bonnet, by Fitzgibbon. Trainer: A. D. Plamondon 3rd. Breeder: H. M. Rhett, Jr. Time: 5:7 2/5.

1. Port Call, (H. M. Rhett, Jr.), 165, P. Murphy.
2. John's Hour, (C. Houghland), 146, W. Murphy.
3. Farmer's Joy, (J. A. Reynolds), 153, D. Thiel.

Also ran: Expedient (West Wind Farm), 165, E. Weymouth; Local Run (E. L. Lotze, Jr.) 158, E. S. Bonnie; Jamaica Boy (B. Danner) 167, H. Murray; Colonel V. (C. Houghland) 151, C. Smith, Jr. Won eased up by 25, place easily by 10, show driving by 2.

EIGHT TRIPLE CROWN WINNERS

Only eight horses have won the Triple Crown since 1875 - that is the Kentucky Derby, the Preakness and the Belmont Stakes. These have been Sir Barton, 1919; Gallant Fox, 1930; Omaha, 1935; War Admiral, 1937; Whirlaway, 1941; Count Fleet, 1943; Assault, 1946; and Citation, 1948.

COUNT FLEET'S RECORD

Count Fleet has become the most successful stallion ever to win the $100,000 Preakness, middle jewel in the Triple Crown. He has sired 30 stakes winners and earners of $5,338,985 in purses. He has four sons eligible for the 1957 Preakness including the highly regarded stakes winner Ghan Fleet.

Grantland Rice Memorial Scholarship

His bright prospects as a sportswriter have earned one of the richest scholarships in America for Thomas E. Templin, 17-year-old high school senior of Lexington, Kentucky.

He will enter Vanderbilt University in September on the TRA Grantland Rice Memorial Scholarship, worth almost $10,000. Financed by the Thoroughbred Racing Associations, nationwide organization of race tracks, it pays college expenses for four years and also provides summertime jobs in which the student learns the sport of Thoroughbred racing.

Purpose of the scholarship is to memorialize Grantland Rice at his alma mater by providing the nation's most promising young sportswriter with the kind of liberal education Rice himself had. The first of the scholarships was awarded last year to Charles D. Nord, of Wappingers Falls, N. Y., now finishing his freshman year.

This year's judging was by a committee that met at Vanderbilt and studied applications that came from 31 states. On the committee were five sportswriters - Bill Corum, New York Journal-American; Dean Eagle, Louisville Times; William McG. Keefe, New Orleans Times-Picayune; Fred Russell, Nashville Banner; Red Smith, New York Herald-Tribune - plus TRA and Vanderbilt representatives.

They chose young Templin on the basis of his writing talent, his high scores on college board exams and his leadership in extra-curricular activities at Lexington's Lafayette High School.

Other finalists were: Paul S. Carlson, Kearney, Nebraska; Donald De Vore, Fort Meyers, Florida; Douglas Feaver, Norman, Oklahoma; Hugh S. Fullerton, 5th, Englewood, New Jersey; William Grose, Charleston, West Virginia; John M. Harvey, Salem, Oregon; Rollin Lasseter, Nashville, Tennessee; Carl Peterson, Topeka, Kansas, and John B. Simmons, Centuria, Washington.

Purses Increased

Purses will be sharply increased for the Far Hills, N. J. race meeting on Saturday, September 21, 1957, on the Dhu Varren Farm of E. H. Ellis, according to a recent announcement by the Essex Fox Hounds Race Meeting Association.

The four-race program will total $5,000, and each race has been increased over the 1956 level, headed by the Wilmerding Memorial Cup, a two-mile hurdle handicap, which has been raised to $2,000.

The New Jersey Hunt Cup, traditionally four miles over post and rails, has been shortened to three miles, because of the Essex meeting now being run in September, in contrast to late October. It carries a purse of $1,000 by virtue of the donation from the United Hunts Racing Association.

Completing the card is the Harry E. Harris, a mile and three-quarter test for maiden hurdlers, and the Peapack, at a mile and a quarter on the flat. Both of these races have been upped $250, with each carrying a purse of $1,000.

The Essex meeting is run for the benefit of the Somerset Hospital, which last year received a sizeable donation. The progressive Race Committee feels that by providing better racing, the importance of the meeting will increase, and larger attendance result. Each year the Committee plans to increase purses consistent with the success of the meeting, realizing full well the importance of substantial purses to the owners who support hunt racing.
